LETTER FROM TALMIA EBENEZER

Dearest Church Family,

As you already know, I am here in Majuro volunteering as a teacher at the SDA school here on the island. From what I know of my own home, I know that it is easy to accumulate Bibles that we do not use. My request to you all is that you would please send any Bibles that you don't use here to Majuro where there is nowhere to buy them and people need and want them so much!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year,

Tammy

If you would like to help Talmia, bring the bibles to church so they can be sent to her.

VESPERS CONCERT Pianist Dr. Calvin Taylor will present a concert at Paradise Valley Church (2701 E 8th St., National City 91950) on Sabbath afternoon, February 2 at 4 pm. A freewill offering will be taken and recordings will be available. He will also perform at Paradise Village on Thursday evening, January 24, at 7 pm. Bring a friend to enjoy his inspirational music.

Good Morning, Church Family! Happy Sabbath!

The offering for next Sabbath, the 26th, is the annual Religious Liberty Offering. This offering is taken to promote and to support the very important work that our denomination carries out to maintain our constitutional freedom to worship as we believe, and the freedom to spread the Gospel in our cities and towns.

The offering will also provide legal support for church members who face job discrimination and loss because they wish to keep the seventh day Sabbath holy.

A third facet of this offering is to provide our denominational magazine, LIBERTY, to local, state and federal law makers, judges, sheriffs, police chiefs, attorneys, law professors, ministers, priests and anyone concerned with maintaining our freedom to worship as we see fit. This includes you, dear church member. A subscription costs six dollars. You are urged to subscribe for yourself.

The cost of this precious freedom is priceless. Many have paid with their lives to defend it. This is the question for you on the twenty-sixth: Is this freedom priceless or worthless to you? There are many all around the world who would pay anything to be sitting next to you, doing what you are doing: Worshiping God freely and openly.

Please open your hearts and give as generously as you have been given. And God will bless you.

Ben Jordan, Religious Liberty Secretary
